

News from CTC!

Thank You, Beth!

After 18 years of service, Captain Beth Putnam is stepping away from CTC to pursue her family's aquaculture business. For the past two years, Beth has been our senior captain and safety officer. With her leadership, dedication, and professionalism, Beth has been a big part of keeping this company strong. While we will miss Beth - she leaves some big shoes to fill - we wish her the absolute best in her future endeavors.

Winter Schedule

Ridership during the winter on CTC's two late ferries on Friday and Saturday nights (10:30/10:45pm) is historically near zero, and CTC buses meeting these trips are almost always empty.

The CTC Board of Directors has approved implementation of a winter schedule effective October 11, 2022 through May 25, 2023. This winter schedule eliminates the 10:30pm/10:45pm ferry, and corresponding bus trips, on Friday and Saturday evenings. This will save CTC about $10,000 in payroll and fuel costs.

This decision was made after careful review of passenger utilization, both on the ferry and the busses. Based on historically low ridership, the elimination of two under-utilized trips was deemed a prudent decision by the board to help control expenses amid rising operating costs. Additionally, removing these virtually unused trips allows us to ease some of the staffing challenges we continue to experience. CTC anticipates no additional trip reductions in its regular schedule.

Congratulations to Amanda and Brendan!

We are very pleased to announce that Captain Amanda Campbell will be taking over the position of Safety Officer, responsible for maintaining CTC's safety program and implementing best practices throughout our marine operations. Amanda has been with the company for over ten years and brings all that experience with her. We are also excited to announce that Captain Brendan O'Brien has been promoted to Marine Operations Manager. With decades of maritime experience, Brendan will assume responsibility for maritime operations including managing all boat crew staff.

Please join us in congratulating Amanda and Brendan on their well-deserved promotions!
